Welcome

Welcome to the second edition of our ZCAS University newsletter! We are thrilled to bring you the latest updates and happenings from our vibrant campus located in the heart of Lusaka, Zambia.

At ZCAS University, we pride ourselves on providing top-quality education and we remain committed to our mission of delivering relevant education that meets the needs of society while nurturing competent, innovative, and ethical graduates.

In this edition, we have exciting features lined up that cater to our diverse audience, including current students, prospective students, alumni, and faculty members. Our aim is to keep everyone connected and engaged with the university community while showcasing the exceptional work happening on our campus.

In the "Student Associations Profiling" section, we will introduce you to the various student organizations that make ZCAS University a vibrant hub of creativity, collaboration, and personal growth. Discover how our student-led initiatives are shaping the campus culture and providing incredible opportunities for personal and professional development.

We are proud to announce the Memoranda of Understanding (MOUs) we have established this quarter, forging valuable partnerships with esteemed organizations. These collaborations not only expand the learning opportunities for our students but also enhance the quality of our programs.

Additionally, we will delve into our library's repository, highlighting the rich resources and services available to our students and faculty members. As we recently celebrated Library Week, we take this opportunity to showcase the significance of our library in fostering research, knowledge dissemination, and intellectual growth within our academic community.

We also want to hear from you! Our next issue of the newsletter will be even more enriching with contributions from our talented community members. Whether you are a student, faculty, or staff member, we invite you to share your stories, experiences, research projects, or creative works for inclusion in our upcoming edition. This is your chance to showcase your achievements and inspire others within the ZCAS University community. Please submit your articles, photographs, or any other relevant content to newsletter@zcasuniversity.edu.zm.

We hope you find this newsletter informative, inspiring, and engaging. Your continuous support and involvement contribute to making ZCAS University a thriving educational institution. Together, let's embrace excellence, integrity, innovation, and teamwork as we navigate this academic year.

Thank you for being a part of our ZCAS University community!

Warm regards,

Editor - June 2023

Vice Chancellor on Twitter

Talk to the Vice Chancellor on @VC_ZCASU

Talk to him directly, don't go through the notorious boxes

We are excited to announce a new initiative at ZCAS University that aims to foster better communication and interaction between the student body and our esteemed Vice-Chancellor. We have launched an official Twitter account exclusively for the Vice Chancellor, providing a convenient platform for students to connect, engage, and share their thoughts and ideas directly with our university's leadership.

Through this Twitter account, students will have the opportunity to directly interact with the Vice Chancellor, ask questions, share suggestions, and participate in meaningful conversations that shape the future of our university. It serves as a bridge that breaks down barriers and promotes a sense of unity, collaboration and shared vision among all members of the ZCAS community.

We encourage all students to follow the Vice Chancellor's Twitter account (@VC_ZCAS) to stay informed about important announcements, upcoming events, and university initiatives.

Your voice matters, and we believe that by actively participating in this initiative, you can help shape the university's policies, programs, and services. We encourage you to utilize this platform responsibly, respecting the principles of constructive dialogue, inclusivity, and mutual respect.

Remember to follow the Vice Chancellor's Twitter account (@VC_ZCASU) today and be part of the conversation that shapes the future of ZCAS University!

Stay connected, stay engaged, and let your voice be heard!

Library News Update

As we approach the halfway mark of 2023, we would like to take a moment to update you on the exciting developments and improvements that have taken place at the ZCAS University Library from January to June. We have been diligently working to create a conducive and efficient environment for our patrons Research and study.

Here are the key highlights

- Enhanced Security Measures: the safety and security of our library users has always been a top priority. We are currently completing a comprehensive upgrade of our Closed-Circuit Television (CCTV) surveillance system. This state-of-the-art technology ensures that our library premises are constantly monitored, providing a secure environment for all users. With these enhanced security measures in place, students can study with peace of mind, knowing that safety is of utmost importance to us.

- Improved Communication: To enhance communication within the library, a Public Address (P.A.) system has been installed.

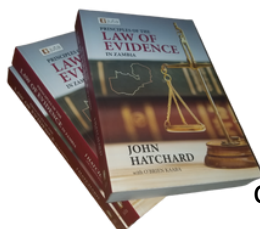

This enables clear and audible announcements, ensuring that patrons stay informed about important updates and general announcements, regardless of their location in the library.

- Enhanced Customer Service: The library staff has received additional training to better assist patrons with research needs, digital resource navigation, and personalized recommendations. The aim is to provide an enjoyable and productive library experience for every visitor. Furthermore, power ports in the reading area have been increased, allowing uninterrupted device charging.

- Expanded Digital and Physical Collection: The library is a member of the Zambia Library Consortium, granting access to a vast range of electronic resources, including e-books, e-journals, databases, and more.

These resources are available remotely, enabling students to access them at any time. Additionally, the library maintains a physical collection aligned with the university's programs, regularly updated to cater to students' needs.

The ZCAS University Library appreciates the continued support and patronage of its users. For any suggestions, Feedback or requests, please email us at bumba.dubeka@zcasu.edu.zm or dokowe.chimuka@zcasu.edu.zm and we will be happy to help make your library experience a better one.

Wishing everyone a successful second half of the year!

Best Graduating Students

At the recent ZCAS University/University of Zambia graduation, we had the privilege of witnessing the remarkable accomplishments of our students. Among them, we had the opportunity to speak with Lengwe Bobo, the best-graduating student in LLB-Commercial Law, and Mercy Mpongo Kosta, the best-graduating student in Bachelor of Accounting and Finance at both ZCAS University and UNZA.

Lengwe expressed, "A lot of what I accomplish isn't solely my own doing. Throughout university, I have had the support of great friends, family, and lecturers who have pushed me forward, and sometimes even pulled me through the challenges." She added, "I have also relied on my faith in Christ, living by the words in Ecclesiastes 9:11, which ultimately means 'do your best, and God will take care of the rest.'"

Mercy spoke about how society often defines the limitations of what the girl child can achieve, saying, "We are forced to confine ourselves within the limitations imposed upon us, restricting our potential." She encourages readers, especially girls, by saying,

"As you read this, I want you to know that the confines of that box do not exist. There is nothing on this earth that can limit your greatness and potential."

Mercy further emphasizes, "It all begins with shifting your mindset, breaking free from that box, maintaining a positive outlook, and believing in yourself. Remember, the only limit that exists is the one you set for yourself. Once you realize this, you will discover that there truly are no limits, and you can achieve more than you've ever imagined."

Lengwe adds, "Have a firm foundation and surround yourself with the best and most high-quality people you can find. Don't be afraid to try new things or seek help when needed. Maintain a positive attitude and strive to see the best in every situation. Avoid falling into the habit of believing that the odds are against you because if you don't believe in yourself, you likely won't succeed."

Overall, both Lengwe and Mercy emphasize the importance of mindset, support networks, self-belief, and breaking free from limitations to achieve one's full potential. Their inspiring words serve as a reminder that with the right mindset and determination, there are no limits to what can be accomplished.
